Talk at HLT Farmers' Market Focuses on Making Land Your 401(k)

RARITAN TOWNSHIP – Learn how to make your land your 401 K with Geoffrey Close of the Tewksbury Land Trust during the Sunday, Sept. 25 Hunterdon Land Trust Farmers' Market.

Close will speak in the wagon house at the Dvoor Farm, 111 Mine St. in Raritan Township, at 11 a.m. and will offer attendees helpful information on how to prepare for retirement, how to tap the liquidity value of land, suggest ways to use development rights to acquire a charitable gift annuity, and much more.

This program is free. Reservations are encouraged by calling 908-237-4582 or emailing Judy@hunterdonlandtrust.org.

Close is a wealth advisor with more than 35 years of experience in financial services. In addition to his work with the Tewksbury Land Trust, he also serves on other volunteer director boards including the Association of Fundraising Professionals, the Gift Planning Council of New Jersey and the New Jersey chapter of Partners in Philanthropic Planning.

Close serves on the Planned Giving Advisory Councils of several organizations including: New York Presbyterian Hospital, The Hackettstown Regional Medical Center, The New Jersey Symphony Orchestra, Georgian Court University and the Northern New Jersey Chapter of the American Heart Association.

The producers'-only Farmers' Market is open 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and hosts about 20 farmers and vendors offering an assortment of local products including organic fruits and vegetables, beef, chicken, pork, yak, bacon, eggs, milk, cheese, artisan bread, locally roasted coffee, fermented foods, native plant seeds and honey. The market also has a food truck that makes flat-bread pizzas using ingredients provided by the farmers.
