CELEBRATE THE SCENIC BEAUTY OF HUNTERDON COUNTY AT THE HUNTERDON LAND TRUST FARMERS' MARKET SUNDAY OCTOBER 21

Flemington, NJ — One of Hunterdon County's greatest attractions is its rural beauty. From rolling farm fields to hidden waterfalls, our county has some of the most beautiful sights in the Garden State. Residents and visitors alike delight in nature's beauty and with the Hunterdon Land Trust community's commitment to land preservation, there are an endless number of great photos to be taken.

On Sunday October 21st we'll celebrate Hunterdon's scenic beauty at the Hunterdon Land Trust's Farmers' Market. Grab your camera and join noted Nature Photographer Dwight Hiscano who will help you take some amazing photographs at the land trust's home on the Historic Dvoor Farm (111 Mine Street, on the Route 12 Circle). A slide show of Dwight's photos at 10 a.m will be followed by a walk around the grounds of the Dvoor Farm. While you walk, Dwight will share tips for taking the best landscape photos. Registration is $15 and space is limited. Please sign up with the Hunterdon Land Trust by calling 908.237.4582 or emailing info@hunterdonlandtrust.org.

There will also be a sneak preview of nature photographs and paintings by local artists that will be for sale at the land trust's annual Holiday Market, taking place on November 18th this year.

"I'd like to thank Weidel Realtors for sponsoring this special day celebrating Hunterdon's Scenic Beauty" said land trust Executive Director Patricia Ruby. Tom McMillan, Weidel Realtor said "The peace and beauty of Hunterdon County are major reasons why people want to live here. I am a long-time supporter of the Hunterdon Land Trust and am happy to be a part of this organization that maintains our county's high quality of life."

Be sure to take advantage of all your favorite fall foods produced by those scenic farm fields at the Hunterdon Land Trust Farmers' Market on Sunday. From apples to meats, from cheeses to beans, the freshest local foods are available every Sunday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Farmers' Market is sponsored by three local businesses: Basil Bandwagon Natural Market, Matt's Red Rooster Grill and Team Capital Bank.
